

Abbey Doneger
President & CEO
The Doneger Group

Abbey Doneger joined The Doneger Group in 1973, became President in 1980 and Chairman of the Board in 1995. His father, Henry, founded the company in 1946. Abbey oversees all company operations, including building client and industry relationships, corporate strategic planning and new business development.

Abbey has led the growth of The Doneger Group into the industry's largest and most prominent fashion and retail merchandising consulting firm through the addition of services and complementary divisions and strategic acquisitions.

The Doneger Group and its Doneger Creative Services, Directives West, Tobe and Price Point Buying divisions research, analyze and evaluate all segments of the apparel and accessory markets, both at wholesale and retail in womenswear, menswear and childrenswear.

Abbey serves as a board member to the Fashion Institute of Technology's Educational Foundation, American Apparel and Footwear Association (AAFA), K.I.D.S./Fashion Delivers, YMA/Fashion Scholarship Fund, Syracuse University's Retail Advisory Board, the Fashion Center Business Improvement District, South Nassau Communities Hospital, Hewlett-East Rockaway Jewish Centre and the University of Massachusetts Isenberg School of Management.

He has been recognized by the Joel Finkelstein Cancer Foundation, United Jewish Appeal, American Apparel & Footwear Association and K.I.D.S/Fashion Delivers.

Abbey graduated from the University of Massachusetts in 1973 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. He and his wife Valerie live in Hewlett, Long Island and have three sons, Adam, Jason and Michael.
